

Boys Hope Girls Hope

May 2, 2018

Dear Boys Hope Girls Hope Supporters & Champions,

Change. What a powerful word.

Recently, Boys Hope Girls Hope articulated this word, and its variations, when we made an exciting announcement: We are transitioning from our dual Residential and Academy Programs to fully focus on our Academy Program in partnership with schools in our community, while continuing the College Program. As we reach more children in-need, your generosity is more than appreciated by both Boys Hope Girls Hope staff and scholars alike.

At the start of the 2018/19 school year, Boys Hope Girls Hope of Colorado will look slightly different. Our needs will change. Our environments will change. Our routines will change. Our mission, however, remains the same. Boys Hope Girls Hope of Colorado is still committed to helping scholars become men and women for others, educating them for the future. We still need your commitment! Will you continue to support us through this change?

While the details and logistics of the new Academy Program at Regis Jesuit High School continue to come together, there are some things we do know. We need your help in assuring scholars receive an individualized plan, including transportation for scholars to and from school, dinner and snacks throughout the school week, access to technology and iPads, mentoring, tutoring, career panels and life skills classes.

We have established the Hope Forward Campaign to ensure these needs are addressed. Hope Forward will allow us to see this transition into full blossom. Our hopes are set on the future of Boys Hope Girls Hope, and we are excited for this season of new growth and the chance to reach more children in-need. You can make your gift to Hope Forward today at <http://bit.ly/HopeForward>.

Thank you for continuing to support us through this transition.

On behalf of our scholars,

Mary Fran Tharp
